UNIVED STATES COURT-NOVEMBER TERM 1869, COLUMBIA, S. C .- The Judge gave notice to the bar at the ression of the court on Thursday peremptority on and after Wednesday, the Sist mber, and that, in the meantime, he would aire up any business on the civil dockets by con-

TRIMET CHURCH.—The improvements that were commenced on this building some time since are rapidly approaching completion. The interior has been remidelled and modernized, and the red brick of the exterior treated to a ercam colored tint. At repairs are being pushed forward rapidly, and the edifice will soon be mened for public wordly.

BUBOPWAN CARGOSS.—The Bark Annie Kimyesterday, by Messri Street Brothers & Co., with 15 bags sea island and 2521 bales upland cotton. The beautiful lot of ten bales of South Carolina growth which tool the prize at the Columbia Pair, is on board the vessel. Messrs. R. Mure & So. cleared the Brush Hark Iris, for an English port, with 1790 horrels naval stores.

A BRIGHT DOMMER.-The raid of the detefraternity to been the alert and to invent plans to clade the rigiance of the detectives. The latter are, however, up to most of the dedges, and the anfortunate drammer is soon brought to grief. One of this class, who paid a recent visi nse, pinnel it on the lappel of his coat, where he sora it proudly during his stay.

RETURN OF DIL HICKS .- Dr. W. W. Hicks, odate paster of St. John's Lutheran (hurch, has returned to the city from a visit to Lexington Courthouse, where he assist scremony of laying the corner-stone of a Lutheran church at that place. The attendance was quite large, and the occasion very interesting. Considerable interest is felt in the establishmen of the church, and the corner-stone will soon be erowned with a stately edifice.

SALE OF SECURITIES .- Mr. J. Drayton Ford sold at auction yesterday $12,500 bills of the Bank of the State, issues of 1861 and 1862, for 201 to 21 Thirty-four shares of Bank of Charleston stock, at $25 per share. One hundred and thirty-five half shares in the same bank, for $12 to $12 25 per share.

Two hundred shares People's Bank stock, at Twenty-five hundred shares Northeastern Rail road first mortgage bonds, at $32.

Fifty shares Northeastern Raliroad preferred stock, for $30 per share.

A MODEL ESTABLISHMENT.-We invite the atention of the friends of THE NEWS in the city and inghout the State to the excellent facilities which our office enjoys for the prompt execution rided with new type and machinery of the lates selected stock of cards, envelop and papers of all qualities. The News Job Office is of plain and ornamental printing in the very best manner, and at rates at least as low as any establishment in the Southern States. Call at THE NEWS building (up-stairs) and examine sonic of prices and specimens of our work. A CHNUINE CHRISTMAS BOX .- One of the largest and most perfect music boxes ever made en received by Mr. Von Santen, and will be raffied about Christmas time. Since it has been and the sliver-toned instrument has already be come town-talk. The list is filling up rapidly and the fortunate winner can have an opportunity of making a Christmas present not to be despised The box is valued at $500, and the chances are put down at the low figure of $2. The raffle will be conducted on the plan of the Havana lottery—the tlokets are numbered, and an equal number of blanks are taken, on one of which is printed "music box." These are put in separate hats and drawn by two little boys, the number drawn with the printed ticket being the one that wins the prize. The box was manufactured at Genava, Switzerland, and has a celestial voice, nine bells, flute and picolo fife attachments. It plays the beautiful airs: Romeo and Juliette Waltz; Muette de Portio, Overture; March de Paust; La Travinia, Parigi o cara; Grand Duchess, Quadrille; Ernani Involumi; Home, Sweet Home; Quillanme Tell; O Mathilds.

A QUEER STORY .- The Augusta papers menion the arrival, to that city, of a lady-like woman from Charleston, who was laboring under some mental derangement. She wan taken to the city hall, where she gave namistakable proof that r reason was overthrown. She gave the name of Toni, and that of Marie Rosa Ostich, and said that she had resided in Charleston for several yours, but had been abandoned by her husband in September. The Chronicle says: "She claimed to have been a Catholic, but said that priceto in Charleston had treated very badly and turned her out of the church. She professed to have some sort of holy spirit in her which gave her authority over all ordinary mortals, and announced her in equion of founding a new church, in which th its should all be Masons, and shall take unto themselves wives, with power to fix the latter if they did not conduct themselves properly. Her band, she said, owned a fruit store in Charleston, but was now absent in Jacksonville, and th formed by the chief of police that he would send her back to Charleston on the 4 o'clock train, si somed much alarmed at the prospect, saying that she had many enemies in that city. would send her to the penitentlary. She alm seemed to be afraid test some one would shoot ber, taxed one of our "midest mannered" pollo officers with an intention of this sort, and usked the ohief to go with her to the oars and see that none of the passengers had plate's. She is a res pectable lookin : woman, with three bright looking th'd en, and exci ed much p ty in the breasts o ye so't hea red police. She was placed on the ou tran and sent back to Charlesion to her trande."

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK. We were in rror in saying, yesterday, that the Pirst Natio Bank had anfered by the defalcation of Mr. Charles Cahn. This bank is interested to a very limited extent, and is far more than covered by the scourities in its passession.

The Protective Stevedoros' Association

To the Shipping Merchants, Steedores, shoremen, and all persons interested in the prospertly and welfare of the commerce of

We, the members of Union Protective Stevedorp's Association, do hereby beg leave to addres

We deem it necessary to revert in this connec tion to the history and conduct of the Union Long shoremen's Society of this city, and to their en deavor to antagonize labor and capital. Of this nize and assert the importance of unity and Aar mony between labor and capital, and to this end devote our endeavors. As we would oppose a party of laborers who tried to array themselve gainst the capitalists, so we would equally and as earnestly oppose the capitalist who would try to exert the inducace of capital against the in-terest of the workingman. That there is any necessity that either of these dilemmas should arise r exist, we do not admit. That they have occurred, no one can deny. That the Longshoremen's Society have refused to work for certain parties for the most absurd (and in some case for political) reasons, is also a well known fact. That they endeavored by threats and violence to prevent men from working except they belonged to their creed and recognized their right to dictate to hein, when how and for w work, cannot be disputed. We do not propose nor do we desire, to dictate to the Longshoremen's Society. If they do not already see the fallacy and impolicy of their unjust conduct in putting and keeping the commerce of the city in a con time discover that they have killed the goose that laid the golden egg. They will soon find that their policy, if persisted in, and not defeated, will cause shipowners and masters to seek other ports for engagements for their vessels, and cause fac produce. To the shipmasters agents and ship pers we would respectfully state that we are now in an organized condition, ready, willing and able to perform all the duties of stevedores.
